2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Cloughjordan No.1 N.S. is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland ethos under the patronage of the Church of Ireland Bishop of Tuam, Limerick and Killaloe, the Rt. Rev'd Michael Burrows.

"Church of Ireland/Anglican" ethos in the context of a Church of Ireland primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Anglican Christian tradition. This seeks to nurture and encourage the formation of the intellectual, academic, sporting, social and religious abilities of each child within the framework of the community of faith. A Church of Ireland ethos encourages intellectual diversity of thought and encourages the individual to seek to understand themselves, the world around them and the connection between the world and the divine. This understanding of school ethos promotes pluralism in thought and living, in the context of a Christian school community. Drawing on its Anglican tradition, the Church of Ireland School encourages home/family involvement, highlighting the importance of the family/home in the social and emotional development of the child, and more broadly, the community of the school and church.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Cloughjordan No.1 N.S. shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school

In Cloughjordan No.1 N.S. our mission is to provide primary education of the highest quality in a happy, safe and stimulating Christian environment, where mutual respect and tolerance are promoted and each child is valued and cared for as an individual.

We aspire to encourage and motivate all our pupils academically, emotionally, socially, physically and spiritually, through close home-school co-operation, to reach their full potential, to become responsible and happy individuals and to prepare them to take their places in the future as valued and contributing members of society.
